It is with great honour and anticipation that I extend a warm welcome to you at the distinguished DSA 2024 and NATSEC Asia 2024 events, scheduled from May 6 to 9, 2024, at the Malaysia International Trade and Exhibition Centre (MITEC) in Kuala Lumpur.

As the Minister of Defence, I take immense pride in endorsing this exceptional series and witnessing its growth and success over the years. Congratulations to the organisers for successfully executing yet another outstanding event.

In the wake of global challenges and uncertainties, events like DSA & NATSEC Asia 2024 are essential in fostering international cooperation, particularly within the Asian region. We are at a juncture where the revitalisation and modernisation of the global defence and security landscape are crucial.

DSA & NATSEC Asia 2024 is an essential premier platform in these endeavours. It has historically brought together industry leaders, governments, and defence agencies, fostering mutual trust and collaboration.

I envision an even more significant role for DSA & NATSEC Asia 2024 in the years ahead as it continues to facilitate foreign technology exchange and partnerships, aligning with our ongoing efforts to modernise our defence force.

In conclusion, I extend my most profound appreciation to all involved. I am confident that DSA 2024 and NATSEC Asia 2024 will meet and exceed expectations. The collaborative efforts undertaken during this event will undoubtedly contribute to Malaysia's continued success as a sovereign nation on the world stage.
