

Army Recognition will be Official Online Daily News and Official WebTV at DSA 2016 Malaysia

Our enthusiastic Army Recognition team will follow the 2016 DSA Defense Services Asia from Kuala Lumpur to unveil the main highlights of the show and the newest innovative technologies.

DSA (Defense Services Asia) that will take place in Kuala Lumpur from the 18 – 21 April 2016 became the biggest Defense exhibition in Asia and this year for the 15th edition, Army Recognition will take part of the event as Official Online Show Daily News partner and Official Web TV.

Our team will provide daily reports from the 1200 companies from 60 countries. The companies can take advantage of our readers from Asia which represents almost 20% of our readership. Our exposure during the show will be optimized with large advertising screens around the place. The Online Show Daily News is read by 25,000 to 30,000 people from 130 countries during an exhibition. All activities of DSA 2016 with our news, reports, pictures and Web Television with daily report at <http://www.armyrecognition.com>

The show is organized by the Malaysian Minister of Defense YB Dato' Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein and his committee. DSA 2016 will ride on the success of 2014 with over 26 International Pavilions expected to participate to engage with more than 300 VIP Delegations from above 44 countries. The main asset of the show is to provide discussions to the management on the challenge associated with disasters and risks. The Malaysian Army will also showcase various dynamic demonstrations during the show.
